

Engaging Mentors in Your Classroom

Presented by:

Nick Chapman, Amina Music, Shauna Ruda,
Claudia & Mike Stepanovich

Engaging Mentors in Your Classroom

1. How to find mentors
2. How to prepare mentors
3. How to get the most out of the experience
4. How to leverage mentors to improve your program

Finding Mentors

- Where can I go?
- Who am I looking for?
- What do they want out of this experience?

Preparing Mentors

- Scheduling the initial phone call
 - Sharing contact information
- Scheduling the first Site Visit
- Email to the Mentors:

Mentoring a VE Class

Presented by: Iris Blanc & Nick Chapman

for [Insert Company Logo Here]

Maximizing the Mentorship Experience

- How do I work with my mentor to be most effective?
- What are the shared expectations?
- What does the mentor need to know to be successful?

Improving your VE program through the Mentorship

- Send letters of commendation to the company/supervisor of VE volunteers at the end of the school year
- Highlight your VE mentor and program in the school newsletter + mentor company's newsletter or online website news
- Bring your VE students to visit the mentor company
- Invite school and district administrators to visit when mentors are in class

Thank you!

Nick Chapman, President, VE